MONTHLY DIGEST OF STATISTICS

No. 245

MAY 1966

This Digest has been prepared by the Central Statistical Office in collaboration with the Statistics Divisions of Government Departments.

2. The name of the department or organisation providing the statistics is shown under each table. Some of the statistics provided by departments are actually collected by other organisations such as nationalised boards and trade associations. The assistance provided by these organisations, too numerous to mention individually, is gratefully acknowledged.

3. The figures in the Digest are mainly totals for calendar months or monthly averages.

4. Some of the figures included in this Digest are provisional only and may be revised in later issues.

Definitions

5. A Supplement of Definitions and Explanatory Notes, published with the January issue, gives detailed definitions of all the terms and units used in the Digest.

6. The following general definitions should be noted in using the Digest:

Area covered. Except where otherwise stated, all statistics relate to the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland.

Units of measurement.
Ton = long ton of 2,240 lb.
Gallon = imperial gallon.

Consumption and stocks. The terms 'consumption', 'disposals' and 'stocks' are normally defined in detail in the Supplement to the Digest. Figures of consumption and stocks are seasonal and should be used with caution. The stocks figures given may often relate to only part of the total stocks in the country.

External trade. Owing to differences in coverage and timing, figures of imports and exports are not always comparable with those for production, consumption and stocks.

Symbols and conventions used

7. Symbols. The following symbols are used throughout:

.. not available.
— nil or less than half the final digit shown.
* average (or total) of five weeks.

8. Change of basis. A line drawn across a column between two consecutive figures indicates that the figures above and below the line have been compiled on different bases and are not strictly comparable. In each case a footnote explains the difference.

9. Rounding of figures. In tables where figures have been rounded to the nearest final digit, there may be an apparent slight discrepancy between the sum of the constituent items and the total as shown.

Public expenditure on social services and housing

The following tables give figures of public expenditure on social services and housing for the financial years 1958/59 to 1965/66. Figures for the latest two years are the most recent estimates available and subject to revision. The tables cover both current and capital expenditure of the central government (including the National Insurance Funds) and local authorities, and the capital expenditure of public corporations. The figures relate to years ended 31 March except for expenditure of local authorities in Scotland, most of whose financial years end during May.

Functional classification

The definitions used follow closely those in Table 48 of National Income and Expenditure 1965, described in Chapter X of National Income Statistics: Sources and Methods and Section XIV of the Blue Book. As in the Blue Book, expenditure on administration includes the cost of common services (i.e. accommodation, stationery and printing, superannuation, etc.) which is not borne by the departments administering each service. The following notes give brief descriptions of each of the main functional headings in the tables.

Education
This covers expenditure by the education departments, local education authorities and the University Grants Committee on education in schools, training colleges, technical institutions and universities.

National health service
This covers expenditure by hospital authorities, executive councils and Health Departments on hospital, general medical and other health and welfare services; and expenditure by local authorities on the provision of health centres, health visiting, home nursing, the care of mothers and young children, ambulance services, vaccination and immunisation, etc. In Table B, only the net costs of providing these services are included in total public expenditure, receipts from patients being shown separately.

Child care
This covers the contributions made towards the cost of running voluntary approved schools, remand homes and other children's homes; and expenditure on similar establishments directly administered by local authorities.

School meals, milk and welfare foods
This covers the cost of providing school meals, milk and welfare foods at reduced prices to children and expectant mothers. In Tables B and C, only the net costs of providing these services are included in total public expenditure, payments by the recipients of the services being shown separately.

National insurance, pensions and assistance
This covers expenditure from the National Insurance Funds; expenditure by the Ministry of Pensions and National Insurance on war pensions and family allowances; and expenditure by the National Assistance Board on non-contributory old age pensions and national assistance.

Housing
This covers subsidies paid by the Housing Departments towards the provision of housing by local authorities, development corporations and housing associations; the net expenditure by local authorities on housing after deducting rents and central government subsidies; capital expenditure by the public sector on the provision of houses for letting; grants by local authorities towards the cost of conversion and improvements of privately-owned houses; and net lending by the central government and local authorities for private house purchase.

Economic classification

The definitions used follow those in the National Income and Expenditure Blue Book. The following notes are intended as a general guide to the methods adopted; a more detailed description of the classification can be found in National Income Statistics: Sources and Methods.

Current expenditure on goods and services
This comprises purchases of those goods which are not regarded as fixed assets, payments for the services of public authority employees and payments for other services. Imputed rents for the use of assets owned and used by public authorities are included; these relate mainly to schools and hospitals and are measured by reference to the rateable value of these buildings. The figures are shown separately in Tables B and C. Superannuation contributions paid by local authorities and bodies operating the national health service are treated as part of the cost of purchasing the services of their employees, so that pensions paid to these employees on retirement are excluded. Pensions under the non-contributory schemes for civil servants, however, are included at the time of payment.

Subsidies
These are payments to trading bodies which have the effect of reducing selling prices below the factor costs of production. Since the provision of housing by local authorities is regarded as a trading activity, both the rate contribution to meet the deficit on local authority housing and central government grants to local authorities, housing corporations, etc. for housing are treated as subsidies. The amount by which payments of temporary housing annuities by the Housing Departments exceeds receipts from local authorities is also included.

Current grants to private bodies
These are grants towards the current expenditure of universities and other private non-profit-making bodies.

Current grants to persons
These consist of scholarships, students' maintenance and training allowances, allowances to patients in hospitals, grants to persons in kind (net expenditure on school meals, milk and welfare foods), national insurance benefits and war pensions paid in the United Kingdom, non-contributory old age pensions, national assistance grants and family allowances.

Current grants paid abroad
These comprise subscriptions to the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organisation and the World Health Organisation; and payments of national insurance benefits and war pensions to persons living overseas.

Gross fixed capital formation
This includes both expenditure on new assets and the purchase (less sales) of land and existing buildings. It relates mainly to buildings but expenditure on capital equipment in hospitals, for example, is also included.

Capital grants to private bodies
These are grants towards expenditure on fixed assets by universities and other private non-profit-making bodies.

Capital grants to persons
These comprise mainly compensation payments to doctors for the loss of right to sell medical practices, and grants by local authorities towards the cost of conversions and improvements to privately-owned dwellings.

Net lending to the private sector
This comprises loans (less repayments) to aided and special agreement schools, universities and other private non-profit-making educational bodies; to general practitioners' group practices; and to building societies, housing associations and persons for house purchase.

Transfers within the public sector

Transfers from one part of the public sector to another have been eliminated to avoid double counting. Central government current grants to local authorities are given in Table B but these are not included in the consolidated figures of current and capital expenditure in Table A.

Owing to the introduction of the general grant system, grants for specific social services cannot be shown after 1958/59. In addition to the current grants previously made for specific social services, the general grant covers certain items of capital expenditure treated by local authorities as expenditure met from revenue, but included here as capital expenditure; and a few services outside the category of social services on which expenditure is relatively small. (In 1958/59 grants under this latter heading amounted to £8 million). The figures shown against the heading General grants and other grants not shown separately above include certain payments of the balance of specific grants in respect of 1958/59 and earlier years, and also specific grants to local authorities by the central government in Northern Ireland where the general grant system does not apply.

(1) Rent, rates, water charges and expenditure by occupiers on repairs, maintenance and improvements.
(2) This series is subject to a wide margin of error because of the difficulty of separating business from personal expenditure. It is shown separately because quarterly variations have such an important influence on changes in the total of consumers' expenditure and on personal saving.

(1) The table covers all persons aged 15 and over at work or registered as available for work. Part-time workers are counted as full units. The industry groups are those given in the Standard Industrial Classification 1958.
From June 1962 figures relate to mid-month; before that date they relate to end of month.
Figures after June 1965 are provisional and may be revised after the count of national insurance cards at mid-1966.

(2) Most, if not all, persons registered as temporarily stopped are on the pay-rolls of employers and included in the numbers of employees in employment.

(3) Owing to re-classification at June 1964, figures for earlier years are not strictly comparable. See page 59 of the February 1965 issue of Ministry of Labour Gazette.

† A revised method for the calculation of employment estimates has now been introduced (see the March 1966 issue of Ministry of Labour Gazette). Figures for June 1964(b) and later months are on this revised basis while those for June 1964(a) and earlier dates are on the former basis.

(2) Established and unestablished staff, excluding employees of the Northern Ireland government. In arriving at the totals two part-time workers are counted as one whole-time worker.

(3) Ministry of Defence and Ministry of Aviation (Ministry of Supply prior to 1960). A proportion of the staff of the Ministry of Aviation are engaged on civil work, but these have not been assessed separately and are included in this column.

(4) From April 1963 staff was transferred from Defence and Supply Departments to Ministry of Public Building and Works.

(1) Stoppages involving fewer than 10 workpeople or lasting less than one day have been omitted except any in which the total number of working days lost exceeded 100.
(2) From 1960 the analysis by industries is based on the revised Standard Industrial Classification, 1958.
(3) Where stoppages extend over more than one month, the workers involved are counted in the month in which they first participated.
(4) The figures of working days lost relate to the total working days lost within each of the periods shown as a result of stoppages in progress in that period, whether the stoppages began in that period or earlier.

(1) Figures for individual months are averages of the four or five weeks ending on the last Tuesday of each month. (2) Including prescribed industrial disease.

Source: Ministry of Pensions and National Insurance

(3) Monthly figures relate to the third Tuesday of the month up to January 1966. A new method of estimating was introduced in March 1966, from which date figures relate to the first Tuesday of the month. Yearly figures are averages of twelve monthly figures.

(4) These figures include substantial numbers of persons who have been sick for a long time and who may no longer be in employment.

(5) Yearly figures are averages of quarterly figures. Quarterly figures relate to first Monday in February, May and November and last Monday in July.

(6) Including a diminishing number of widows with pensions of 30s. a week derived from the old Contributory Pensions Acts. About 76,000 such pensions were being paid in June 1965.

(7) Before 5 August 1957 widow's pension was converted to retirement pension at age 60; since that date widow's pension continues to age 65 or date of retirement if earlier. (8) The yearly figures relate to the end of January in the following year up to 1963, and to the end of December from 1964.

(9) Including the elder or eldest child for whom no allowance is payable but excluding children over the age limit.

* Average of five weeks.

(1) The authorization of a weekly allowance payable to a person registering as unemployed remains in force for a time after the person last registers. The figures given include persons no longer unemployed on the day to which they relate. For explanation of the difference between these figures and those in Table 24, column 4, see the note on page 38 of the Report of the National Assistance Board for the year 1964 (Cmnd. 2674).

(2) Some of the allowances provide for the requirements of a household with more than one pensioner.

(3) Before March 1961, the figures for allowances in supplementation of widows' benefit relate only to widows aged under 60, older widows being included with the retirement pensioners. The figure for March 1966 includes 44,000 recipients of widows' benefit, aged over 60.

(1) This index provides a general measure of monthly changes in total industrial production. The unadjusted index allows for variations in the length of calendar months so that it gives the average weekly rate of production in each month. The seasonally adjusted index allows for holidays and regularly recurring seasonal movements.

As some of the figures on which the index is based are available only with considerable delay, the index numbers for the last few months are always liable to be revised. Industries are grouped according to the Standard Industrial Classification, 1958.

(1) Mines operated by the National Coal Board which account for about 99 per cent. of the total output. Changes in the basis of the recorded figures have occurred from time to time making comparisons difficult. The figures given in this table have therefore been adjusted where necessary to conform throughout to the current definitions given in the Supplement of Definitions and Explanatory Notes.

(2) From April 1966, attendances at training and other non-operational activities are excluded.

(1) Excluding quantities used for production of steam for sale. In 1965, 245,000 tons of coal and 13,000 tons of oil were used for that purpose.
(2) Including generation by oil engine, refuse destructor, and waste heat.
(3) Including purchases from industrial producers whose generation is shown in Table 53, and net imports from France.
(4) Annual figures relate to the maximum load occurring near the end of the year or early in the following year.

(1) Wool, hosiery (and other knitted goods), made-up clothing and the spinning, weaving and merchant converting sections of the cotton and man-made fibre industries. (2) The index numbers for individual sectors relate to the total output of manufacturers whose main business is in that sector of the industry and not output of that particular type of garment. (3) These indices have been adjusted to allow for differences in the lengths of calendar months but not for holidays or for other seasonal variations. (4) Revised 1965 figures due to the enlargement of the panel of contributors.

(1) The table includes new buildings and extensions to existing buildings, mainly over 5,000 square feet, in manufacturing industry. Industrial building approved from 1 January 1959 follows the definition of Manufacturing laid down in the revised Standard Industrial Classification, 1958.
(2) Schemes for replacement of buildings destroyed by fire or enemy action are excluded prior to July 1948.
(3) Figures for the 1st and 2nd quarters of 1965 are partly estimated. This addition is not included in the figures of under construction and completions for the Standard Regions.

(1) Excluding building which is wholly financed from private sources. (2) From January 1960 for Scotland and from April 1960 for England and Wales the cost of school meals projects has not been separately recorded. The value of such projects, shown separately for the years 1946 to 1959 in previous tables of educational building, has been included as appropriate under the headings 'Primary and secondary' and 'Special schools'. (3) Figures for England and Wales include the value of projects for which specific approval is not required. (4) Totals for England and Wales include the value of certain projects for which no analysis between type of project is available. As from October 1961, the individual value of such projects is less than £2,000. (5) Figures for England and Wales relate to project values and those for Scotland to contract values. Figures for Scotland include the cost of certain minor projects for which specific approval is not required. (6) This figure takes account of the value of Colleges of Advanced Technology projects transferred to the University Grants Committee on 1 April 1965. (7) The Scottish figures of projects approved refer to approval at the sketch plan stage, which might be some six to twelve months before the start of construction, except those for the period from January 1954 to December 1959 which refer to tenders accepted for approved projects. (8) The Scottish figures of 'Under construction' and 'Completions' are based on the tender costs, but from January 1954 to December 1959 the figures of 'Completions' are adjusted in respect of any difference between the tender and final costs as the latter become known. The 'Under construction' and 'Completions' figures exclude the value of approved school projects which in 1965 amounted to £849,000 and £74,000 respectively.

(1) The method of calculation of the number of new places provided differs in England and Wales and Scotland. In England and Wales the figures refer to the number of pupils for which new school accommodation is designed. In Scotland the figures refer to the sum of the approved capacities of all the teaching rooms whether classrooms or practical rooms, and will normally exceed the number of pupils for which accommodation is designed.

(2) Including new schools brought into partial use before completion.

(3) Extensions, alterations, remodelling and war damage repairs.

(1) 1965 figures include revised estimates of the trend in goods vehicle traffic.
(2) The railway figures up to December 1962 are derived from statistics compiled by the British Transport Commission and from January 1963 from statistics compiled by the British Railways Board. The figures for road transport are estimated from a sample enquiry and traffic counts. This index is adjusted so as to give the average four-weekly rate in each month.
(3) Not over 30 cwt. unladen weight.
(4) The monthly figures have been amended to take into account the results of the 1962 Survey of road goods transport.

(1) The yearly totals include revisions which cannot be allocated to particular monthly periods. The monthly periods end on the last Saturday of the month except the quarter months which end on the last day of the month.

(2) The sum of the twelve monthly receipts under certain headings is slightly greater than the total shown for the financial year. This is because the monthly figures include duties ultimately payable to the Isle of Man and adjustments for these are made only at the end of the financial year.

(3) Including receipts from the 10 per cent. surcharge on most Customs and Excise duties and on purchase tax, which was operative from 26 July 1961 to 9 April 1962.

(4) Including excess profits levy.

(5) Land tax, mineral rights duties, excess profits duty, corporation profits tax and special contribution.

(6) Including receipts from the temporary charge on imports from October 1964 less export rebates.

(7) Provisional.

(1) The index is compiled from the results of a monthly enquiry into the earnings of weekly-paid and monthly-paid employees. The enquiry was fully described in the Ministry of Labour Gazette for April 1962, with supplementary details in the March 1964 issue.

(2) The enquiry covers about 8,000 firms employing approximately 7 million persons in manufacturing, mining and quarrying, construction, gas, electricity and water supply, some miscellaneous services and some activities of the transport industry (London Transport was included from August 1963). In addition figures for agriculture are supplied by the Ministry of Agriculture, Fisheries and Food and the Department of Agriculture and Fisheries for Scotland.

(3) To convert to a weekly basis, earnings of employees paid monthly have been multiplied by 12 and divided by 52.

(4) Figures relate to the last pay-week in the month.

(5) Figures relate to calendar months.

Note: Fluctuations from month to month in the indices may be due to the payment of large annual or half-yearly bonuses, or to seasonal changes in average hours worked, e.g. variations due to the payment of Christmas and end-of-year bonuses are particularly noticeable in the December figures for employees paid monthly.

(1) The figures represent the average earnings, including bonus, overtime, etc., and before deduction of income tax or insurance contributions, in one week in the months indicated. Administrative and clerical workers and other salaried persons have been excluded. Certain qualifications are given in a full account of the enquiry relating to October 1964, published in the Ministry of Labour Gazette for February 1965.

(2) This index relates only to the industries covered by the earnings enquiry. It should not be confused with the figures in Table 159 which cover all industries.

(1) The figures relate to changes in basic full-time weekly rates of wages and do not reflect reductions in normal weekly hours without loss of pay or variations in actual earnings arising from such factors as overtime or lost time. The changes included are, in the main, those arranged by organisations of employers and workpeople or by statutory wages councils or boards. It is estimated that 14 million workers are covered by these statistics. In general, changes arranged by individual employers are excluded.

(2) The monthly totals in the columns headed 'Increase' and 'Decrease' relate to the number of workpeople affected by changes and the corresponding gross amounts. Workpeople affected by two or more changes are counted only once in the annual totals which relate to the number having increases only or for whom increases exceeded decreases, the number having decreases only or for whom decreases exceeded increases, and the corresponding net amounts; the column headed 'Net increase' is therefore the overall net increase for the year.

(3) The annual totals of net increases in basic weekly rates of wages mean that the total wage bill of the country, in the industries and for the workpeople covered by the statistics, for a full ordinary week's work at basic rates of wages at the end of any one year exceeds that for the corresponding week of the preceding year by the amount stated. The average weekly wages paid during any one year will not, however, exceed those paid during the preceding year by this sum, as the actual changes will have taken place at various dates during the year.

(1) The index of retail prices replaced the Interim index from January 1956. A new set of weights was introduced, based on ascertained consumption in 1953–54, valued at January 1956 prices. Commencing in January 1962, the weights have been revised each January on the basis of ascertained consumption in the three years ended in the previous June, valued at prices obtaining at the date of revision.

(1) The weighting of the monthly index is based on the pattern of trade in 1961. The method of calculating the import and export unit value index was explained in the Board of Trade Journal for 13 September 1963.

(2) The index numbers for years before 1960 which were based on 1952 = 100 have been linked to the new series 1960 = 100 to give an approximate comparison.

(3) Export unit value index as a percentage of the import unit value index.

(1) Based on manufacturers' list prices.
(2) The market-price series are based on prices before the addition of subsidies paid to producers under the Cereals Deficiency Payments Scheme and Fatstock Guarantee Scheme.
(3) The gross-price series for wheat, cattle and pigs are based on prices after the addition of subsidies paid to producers; those for milk and eggs on prices paid to producers by the marketing boards for these commodities; and that for potatoes on producer prices, sometimes 'supported' by the Potato Marketing Board.
(4) Maincrop potatoes only.
(5) Based on guaranteed minimum prices to producers at packing stations.
(6) Based on net prices to farmers after deduction of subsidy.
